Records of Devery and Price Sent For.

Chief Clerk Kipp of the Police Department was directed yesterday morning by subporna to bring before the committee all the reports rom the Nineteenth precinct, Capt. Price's, for the past six months, and the following documents touching the Chief's case: A copy of the department rules, Special Order No. 24, the untried charges made against Chief Devery in February, 1897, and the specifications in the same, the official bonds of Mr. Devery as Chief, leputy Chief, inspector, Captain and Sergeant, if now available, and copies of the weekly paper, the Tenderloin, to which the Parkhurst society drew the attention of the board awhile ago, with the result that the board directed the Chief toenforce the law touching obseene publications. The charges against the Chief which have him dormant for two years were a restatement of the accusations that caused him to be dismissed from the force and tried in the courts when a Captain. Special Order No. 24 calls upon precinct commanders to report to the Chief weekly, on Mondays, a list of all disorderly or suspected resorts.

Tammany's Baseless Attack on Gov. Boose-

The friends of James E. March, who has en nominated for the office of Port Warden by Gov. Boosevelt and who is awaiting confirmation by the Senate before he enters on his duties, are stirred up over attacks which have leged that he is not suited to perform the duties of the office. Mr. March's friends say that these attacks have been instigated by Tammany Hall men who have found Mr. March a hard man to beat in the Sixth Assembly district, where he is the Republican leader.

Mr. March has a reputation as a hard and successful fighter, and the Tammany men in his district have not been able to make any compromises with him. For this reason they oppose him not only in politics, but in about everything else that he undertakes. His nomination for Port Warden has been indersed by all of his Republican associates, who, on account of their acquaintance with him, believe that he is in every way capable of discharging the duties of the office. Mr. March's fellow Italian-Americans are enthusiantle in his support. The following letter from one of them was received by THE SUN from one of them was received by The Sun resterday.

To the Editors of The Sun—Sir: What has seen Mr. March's record during all the years he has fived in this country? For the past fifteen refractions to the life Railroad Company to furnish said company with such laborers as were required, the company paying the men a fixed trice. Mr. March only having the privilege of sundying them with such clothes and provisions as were receded. I can say without fair of contradiction that Mr. March has never imported any contract labor, but has always conducted his business in such a way as to wan the confidence and esteem of all with whom he has come in contact or had dealings. If that is what constitutes a "padrone," Mr. March is not the only one in this city or state.

State.

Of course, I know the source from which all these raise charges emanate and the reason thereof and would suggest that certain members of the Legislature clean up their own back raise before finding fault with other people. Those who live in glass houses should not throw stones or they may destroy, their own surroundings. Those who have graduated from salrouns and are now engaged in running some of the most disreputable places in the city, and who, on account thereof, are now dress in a little brief authority, "should see to where of the most disreputable places in the vity. And who, on account thereof, are now direct in a little brief authority," should see to it that their own records are clean before assailing others. To every thinking, sensible person the reason for Tammany's opeosition to Mr March for that is all there is of the opposition is that he is an Italian by birth and Tammany hates Italians worse than the devil hates holy water. If, there is such a thing as a padrone a certain Tammany district leader is an example of the worst kind.

Our Bosseveit, in nominating Mr. March, recognized his sterling worth as a man and good, lectublican, and it is the first time in the history of this State that an Iralian has been named for a high cosition by any political party. True, for a brief period, Mr. March was a member of Tammany Hall, but when he found out its methods and, above all, its policy of excluding all of Italian birth from the right to hold office, he joined the party of equal ishts and to day there is no more active, agressive and earnest Republican worker than James E. March.

AN INTERESTING SESSION IN NEW-

Passing on the Characters of Young Ministers Who Have Been Received on Trial-A Lively Debate Over the Report on

Ulysses Grant Warren, Kingston District. NEWBURG, April 8.-The fourth day of the entennial session of the New York M. E. Conference opened to-day with but little diminution of numbers. Those who were absent who failed to have their pulpits provided for tomorrow were compelled to return and fill them themselves. Dr. Cadman again led the devotional service and the Rev. Frederick H. Carpenter effectively led the singing. At the business meeting Bishop Joyce was in the chair-

The first business was the reception from the Treasurer, Dr. G. H. Gregory, of the annual report of the trustees of the Conference. Then the liveliest debate yet had in Conference took place over a young preacher, Ulysses Grant Warren, of the Kingston district. It came on the report of the Board of Conference Examiners, the question being "Who have been received on trial?" the Rev. Philip M. Watters, Registrar of the board, reporting the gradings of the candidates for promotion,

The name of George W. Grinton was the first one called. His percentage in the examinations was 79 7-9. Dr. Schriver said the young man was "all right, solid, sound, a bundie of organized nerves and concentration." He was passed and advanced. These were also passed and advanced: George W. Cranston, 78 2-9, vouched for by Dr. Schriver as "faithful, and knows how to bring men to Christ;" George A. Macdonald, 81, "a model of purity, faithfulness and devotion to right," said Dr. Schriver; Conlin T. Cooper, 875-9; George W. Rice, 81 1-0; Willard F. Ottarson 87 1-3, vouched for by Dr. Osbon as "a young man of very fine culture, still pursuing studies in a theological seminary, doing good work as a city missionary." William B. Tower, 88.7-9, assistant pastor in Washington Square Church. New York: Richard B. 88 7-9, "a young man of excellent promise." Then came the name of Ulysses Grant Warren, his average was given as 83%, but the examiners reported that his sermon was unsatisfactory, and then the discussion began. The Rev. J. N. Shaffer wanted to know if the defect in young Warren's sermon was in doctrine or in style. Dr. Osbon protested against any discussion of the doctrinal, mental or moral qualities of any young man in Conference. It might be of lasting injury to the young man. The report of the examiners ought to be accepted.

Dr. Shaffer maintained that on questions of doctrine the Conference had no right to delegate its powers or judgment to any board or Young Warren then showed that he had Young Warren then showed that he had friends, and they came to his rescue manfully. Dr. Clark Wright said that he had been Mr. Warren's pastor when Mr. Warren's name was first submitted to the Conference, and that Mr. Warren had come with the highest credentials from Yale. The Rev. W. Mck. Darwood declared that Mr. Warren preached the kind of doctrine which wins souls, and which is therefore the most successful. The Rev. Field Hermance said the young man was all right. Mr. Germond, who is Mr. Warren's Presiding Elder, said that the fault with the sermon must have been in literary quality or the lack of it, and not doctrinal in its nature. He pronounced Mr. Warren one of the most cultivated men in the Kingston district. Dr. Darwood said that he has had more conversions at Hamden than they had had there for four or five they may watters of the board said that hey

Several ministers now wanted to speak, but the Bishop shut them off after Dr. Osbon had again protested against discussing such cases on the floor of the Conference. Bishop Joyce then said that everything seems to be right about this young man except, perhaps, a slip of the pen in writing his sermon.

Dr. W. F. Anderson, Chairman ofiboard, suggested that it would be hest to advance the young preacher on condition that he make his sermon satisfactory to the examiners before the end of the year. This was adopted, it being agreed that nothing else should go into the official record about the case.

John H. Windler, 88 2-7, was passed and advanced, and the Rev. J. C. Coddington was "most heartily recommended for admission into full connection," his percentage being 85 3-4.

These local preachers were elected to Deacons' orders: Herbert E. Chaee, whose percentage in the examinations was 90; William E. Doughty, 87-2-13, and John P. Taylor, 89-10-13. Two places that had been vacated, one by the death of Dr. Vail and the other by the resignation of Dr. Ensign McCheaney, were filled by the appointment of the Rev. R. E. Bell and the Rev. Alfred Coons.

Dr. Paimer said a cablegram had just been received announceing the death of Mrs. Gideon Draper, on Saturday, at Hakodai, Japan.

Mrs. Flak addressed the conference in regard to the interests of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, and Prof. Fulkner spoke in hehalf of Drew Theological Seminary. The Rev. Dr. Jennings, one of the Western Book Agents, presented the interests of the publishing institutions of the Church.

IGNORED HIS FAMILY DEAD

SON FINDS BODIES OF FATHER AND SISTER AND SAYS NOTHING.

Pagetter Case of Suicide or Murder in St. Louis, with Singular Conduct by of the Family-One More Death Will Probably Result-The Case a Mystery.

Sr. Louis, Mo., April 8.-In two little rooms n the rear of 1318 Biddle street there were found this morning the bodies of John Sullivan and his daughter, Mrs. Minnie Dunn, supposed victims of poison. They had been viewed yesterday afternoon by the son, John Sullivan, who resides at 2023 Morgan street, and who left without reporting to the police. The father and his daughter were insured in a local mutual insurance company. Whether they committed suicide because of their poverty and in order that relatives might get the money, or whether they were poisoned by some one else, are theories upon which the police are divided.

The house in which the bodies were discovered is an old rookery, the rear of which is occupied by several families. On Thursday John Sullivan, aged 65, his wife, Kate Sullivan, and two little chilof Mrs. Dunn, Christie and George, moved into two rooms on the lower floor. The rooms have only one door and one window each and are scarcely large enough to contain the meagre furniture that the family brought with them.

The furniture was piled in the corners against the wall. The beds were not set up, and no attempt had been made to put the place in order. The family partook of supper of eggs and tea, and one after another lay down on rags for a sleep from which two of them never awake. This morning the children in the neighborhood, having seen no one enter or depart from the place yesterday, became injustifive and looked through the windows. For the face they saw an old maind a middle-aged woman Iying apparently dead. They told their parents, and it a few moments Folleemen Finken and Lynch of the
